Cheryl Alli Honored with Heart Health Advocate Award

Cheryl Alli, a long-serving member of the Sarver Heart Center Women's Heart Health Education Committee and volunteer for the Minority Outreach Program is the 2020 recipient of the Mary Anne Fay Heart Health Advocate of the Year. Her nominators cited Ms. Alli's dedication to teaching chest-compression-only CPR in the community and operating her church's food pantry, service she continued during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Mary Anne Fay was the founding chair of the Sarver Heart Center Women's Heart Health Education Committee.

May You Find Peace and Comfort this Holiday Season

Holidays during a pandemic are a challenge for all of us. We hope you find peace and comfort in knowing we are in this together. Please connect safely with people you care about by staying at home and virtually spending time with family and friends near and far.

And, remember we are here to care for you. Please take care of your health. Please wear a mask and stay six feet away from others not in your household.

Support Sarver Heart Center with Year-End Giving

We hope you'll consider giving to Sarver Heart Center as you plan your year-end giving. The CARES Act increased tax incentives for donations during 2020. A charitable deduction of up to $300 per taxpayer ($600 per couples filing jointly) is available this year to those who take the standard deduction and do not itemize. People who itemize can deduct cash donations up to 100% of adjusted gross income.
